

BYLAWS OF SOCIETY OF CORPORATE COMPLIANCE AND ETHICS & HEALTH CARE
COMPLIANCE ASSOCIATION

This instrument constitutes the Bylaws of Society of Corporate Compliance and Ethics & Health Care Compliance Association (the “corporation”), a Minnesota nonprofit corporation, adopted for the purpose of regulating and managing the internal affairs of the corporation.

ARTICLE I PURPOSES

The purposes of the corporation are to promote the professional practice of compliance and ethics, to be a recognized leader in the compliance and ethics profession, and to provide high quality, relevant education, resources, certification and networking opportunities to professionals and others practicing in the areas of corporate compliance and ethics and health care compliance. In pursuing such purposes, the corporation shall act so as to maintain its eligibility for federal income tax exemption under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as amended.

ARTICLE II MEMBERS

The members of the corporation shall be non-voting members without the right to vote with respect to the affairs of the corporation. The procedures and rules relating to membership and benefits of the corporation’s non-voting members shall be as set forth in policies approved by the Board of Directors. Throughout these Bylaws, the term “member” and “members” shall refer to the non-voting members of the corporation.

ARTICLE III BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 3.1. Management. The business and charitable affairs of the corporation shall be managed by or under the direction of a Board of Directors.

Section 3.2. Number, Qualifications, Composition of Board. The Board of Directors shall consist of not fewer than three (3) and not more than twenty (20) persons, including the officers of the corporation as described in these Bylaws. Each director shall be an adult who is a member of the corporation with a demonstrated interest in compliance and/or ethics.

Section 3.2.1. Election of Directors. Directors shall be elected by the Board of Directors of the corporation from a slate of candidates put forward by the Nominating Committee. The Nominating Committee will coordinate the annual Board election process. A call for director nominees will be distributed to the members in advance of the Board selection process. The Nominating Committee will identify a slate of nominees for election to the Board of Directors. The Nominating Committee shall do its best to ensure that the slate of candidates represents the diversity of professions served by the corporation. The slate will be proposed to the full Board of Directors, who shall vote with respect to the nomination of each person separately. Nominees may be elected to the Board of Directors by a simple majority of the directors present at a duly held meeting.

Section 3.3. Terms of Directors. Directors shall serve for a term of three (3) years each, and shall be so elected that approximately one-third (1/3) of the directors within each group of directors is elected each year. Unless otherwise provided by the Board, a director's Board term begins November 1st following the fall Board meeting at which the director is elected. Directors may serve up to a maximum of three (3) consecutive terms of three (3) years each. Notwithstanding the three (3) term limit, the Board may elect a director to an additional term of three (3) years, or to a term of one (1) or two (2) years immediately following completion of the director's three (3) consecutive three (3)-year terms as needed to enable a director to progress through an officer track or to otherwise provide needed continuity on the Board. A director who has served his or her maximum number of consecutive terms is eligible for election to additional consecutive terms after being off the Board for a minimum of one (1) year.

Section 3.4. Quorum. At all meetings of the Board of Directors, a majority of the directors then in office shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 3.5. Number Required for Action by Directors. All directors have the right to vote with respect to matters brought before the Board. Except where otherwise required by law, the Articles, or these Bylaws, the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present at a duly held meeting, participating in a meeting via electronic communication, or voting via written action shall be sufficient for any action. Voting by proxy is not allowed.

Section 3.6. Written Action. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken by written action signed or consented to by authenticated electronic communication by the number of directors required to take the same action at a meeting at which all directors were present. The written action is effective when signed or consented to by the required number of directors unless a different effective date is provided in the written action. When written action is taken by fewer than all of the directors, all directors shall be notified immediately of its text and effective date, except that failure to provide such notice does not invalidate the written action.

Section 3.7. Board Meetings. The Board of Directors shall have regular meetings at such places and times as it shall establish.

Section 3.8. Notice. Directors shall be given at least five (5) days' notice of the date, time and place of Board meetings; provided, however, that if the day, time and place of a Board meeting have been announced at a previous meeting of the Board, notice is not required.

Section 3.9. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called at any time upon request of the President, or any two (2) directors, provided that any such request shall specify the purpose or purposes for the meeting. The President shall set the date for the special meeting within three (3) working days of making or receiving such a request and shall give not fewer than five (5) nor more than thirty (30) days' written notice of the time, place and purpose of such special meeting.

Section 3.10. Place of Meetings. The Board of Directors and committees of the Board may hold their meetings at any place they may designate, whether in or out of the state of Minnesota.

Section 3.11. Electronic Communications. Any Board meeting or meeting of a committee of the Board may be held via any form of electronic communication, including via any online meeting platform, whereby all directors may communicate with each other simultaneously. Notice and quorum requirements are the same for a meeting held via electronic communication. Participation in a meeting held by electronic communication constitutes personal presence at the meeting.

Section 3.12. Form of Notice. Whenever, under the provisions of these Bylaws, notice is required to be given to any director or committee member, notice is given:

- (a) when mailed to the person at an address designated by the person or at the last known address of the person;
- (b) when communicated to the person orally;
- (c) when handed to the person;
- (d) when posted on an online meeting platform the Board has agreed to use to facilitate official notices and meeting information from the corporation;
- (e) when sent by electronic mail, or other electronic means, to an electronic mail address, or other electronic designation at which the person has consented to receive official notices from the corporation; or
- (f) when the method is fair and reasonable when all the circumstances are considered.

Notice by mail is given when deposited in the United States mail with sufficient postage. Notice is considered received when it is given.

Section 3.13. Waiver of Notice. Any director may execute a written waiver of notice of any meeting required to be given by statute or by any provision of these Bylaws either before, at, or after that meeting, and such waiver when signed and filed as hereinafter provided shall be equivalent to notice. Such waiver shall be filed with the President, who shall enter it upon the minutes or other records of that meeting. Appearance at a Board of Directors meeting by a director shall be deemed a waiver of notice thereof, unless the appearance is solely for the purpose of asserting the illegality of the meeting.

Section 3.14. Resignation of Directors. A director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President of the corporation. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the corporation, unless a later effective time is specified in the notice.

Section 3.15. Removal of Directors. A director may be removed from office, with or without cause, by a majority of all of the directors of the corporation; provided that not fewer than five (5) days' and not more than thirty (30) days' notice of such meeting stating that removal of such director is to be on the agenda for such meeting shall be given to each director.

Section 3.16. Filling Vacancies. Except as provided in these Bylaws, in the event of the death, removal or resignation of a director, or a vacancy caused by an increase in the number of directors, a person to fill the remaining or new term shall be elected by the Board of Directors. If the position of the President becomes vacant, the First Vice-President shall succeed for the remainder of the term and remain in office for the full term of his or her Presidency thereafter.

ARTICLE IV COMMITTEES

Section 4.1. Committees. The Board of Directors shall establish an Executive Committee, a Nominating Committee, a Finance, Compliance & Audit Committee, and a Compensation Committee.
