Investigations Policy Mission Statement

It is the policy of (Your Organization Name) to review and, if necessary, investigate allegations of suspected or known employee misconduct and violations of company policy and procedures.

Statement of Responsibility - CECO

Allegations of misconduct will be reviewed promptly and, if necessary, investigated in a timely manner at the direction of the Chief Ethics & Compliance Officer to determine the relevant facts, circumstances, and root cause of the alleged violation or misconduct.

Investigation reports will be submitted to applicable Management personnel upon completion of an investigation.
Statements of Responsibility - Management

Management personnel are responsible for determining the appropriate corrective and disciplinary actions to be taken to mitigate further misconduct.

Management personnel are responsible for promptly notifying Ethics & Compliance, Legal, or Human Resources upon the receipt of a report of alleged misconduct.

Statements of Responsibility - Employees

Every employee has a duty to report, in good faith, known or suspected misconduct or violations of company policy, even when personally involved in the violation.

Reports of known or alleged misconduct should be reported to your immediate supervisor or others in Management.
Statement for Anonymous Helpline Reporting

A Helpline exists to provide for anonymous reporting of known or suspected violations of the organization’s policy and procedures.

(List your Organization’s Help Line number and Web address of any On-Line reporting tools)

Confidentiality Statement

Every reasonable effort will be made to maintain the confidentiality of the source of the report. Additionally, reports can be made on an anonymous basis.
Statement of Cooperation with an Investigation

Employees are expected to cooperate with investigations by providing truthful accounts and relevant documentation in response to investigator questions and related information requests.

Employees who fail to cooperate, or otherwise impede an internal investigation may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the organization’s disciplinary action policy.

Non-Retaliation Statement

There will be no reprisals or retaliation taken against any employee who reports, in good faith, a suspected or known violation.

Any employee who engages in retaliatory behavior towards a real or suspected reporter will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including immediate termination.
Statement of CECO Authority for Investigation Program

The Chief Ethics and Compliance Officer is responsible for the interpretation and administration of this policy.

Checklist / Action Plan for Conducting an Internal Investigation

Control #__________ Prepared by: _____________ Date:___________

Source: (Help Line, Report to Mgmt., Other)_________________________

List all the allegations of misconduct or concerns reported.

Segregate facts from opinions, feelings and hearsay.

Determine if an investigation will be necessary.

Identify who will manage the investigation. (Ethics & Compliance, Human Resources, Internal Audit, In-house Legal, or outside professional support).

Identify who will conduct the investigation. (E&C, HR, Internal Audit, Legal, External Source)

Identify who may be required to support the investigation (Finance, IT, HR, Mgmt., etc.)

Identify any documentation needed to support the investigation (Policies & Procedures, work instructions, business records, security video, gate logs, communications, previous allegations or concerns, etc.)

Identify the individuals to be interviewed (consider order in which you plan to interview).

Prepare standard questions in advance of the interviews.
• Develop open ended question that will allow interviewees to expand on the information in their own words.

Schedule interviews in a location that offers privacy and confidentiality.

Explain to interviewee the purpose of the interview, need for confidentiality, any related company policy, and if necessary, attorney-client privilege.

Include names of investigator(s), reporter, interviewees, date, time of contact.
Keep notes clear, concise and objective (to the extent practical, document exactly what the interviewee states).

Identify and obtain additional documentation or the names of others who could corroborate the information obtained from the reporter or other interviewees.

Document observed behaviors, body language, lack of cooperation, nervousness, fear, etc. Note how clearly the interviewee recalled events or behaviors along with any biases in the interviewee comments.

Review all documents and interview notes to your investigation plan.

Prepare report based on facts and supporting documentation.

If possible, obtain objective and independent review from an E&C colleague or staff attorney.

Issue report to Management based on “need to know”.

Follow-up with Human Resources and others to assure corrective or disciplinary actions were taken, if applicable.

Determine with Legal if external reporting (mandatory or voluntary) to customer of Government Agencies will be made.

Maintain investigation file in accordance with your company’s record retention policy. (10 Years recommended for routine Helpline Matters and over 10 years for reports in response to allegations of fraud.)

Summarize investigations at a high level for periodic reports to Management.

Follow up with reporter, if possible, to close the loop.

Note: You do not need to provide any details of the investigation or corrective actions. A brief call or note to the reporter stating that the matter was investigated and the appropriate corrective actions were taken will suffice.
