A Great Code of Conduct Program

Code publication
The type of publication(s) is the starting point for a successful code program. But a document alone will not achieve the goal of making its standards live in the hearts and minds of employees.

A Great Code of Conduct Program

Code launch
How the code is delivered to employees and others establishes an important precedent for how the company and its leadership will reinforce and support the code and employees' actions regarding it.

A Great Code of Conduct Program

Code education
Leadership should not assume or expect that employees will instinctively understand, appreciate and know how to apply the code simply from reading it. To obtain the best value from the code, a company should effectively educate employees (and others) to it.

A Great Code of Conduct Program

Ongoing reinforcement
Just as with an ethics and compliance program, leadership must continue to reinforce the code – its purpose, importance, application – and the systems that support it for it to maintain lasting value.

Theme – A Unifying Concept

- ▶ Unites content
- ▶ May embody mission, values, culture
- ▶ May work off of company purpose
- ▶ Aspirational, inspirational
- ▶ Often reflected or hinted at in code title and in:
  - ▶ CEO message
  - ▶ Introduction
  - ▶ Section titles
  - ▶ Other content
  - ▶ Visual design

Code Launch

Does your code's launch:

- Ensure all employees receive the code and in a timely manner? (including new hires and staff from acquisitions)
- Instruct leaders and other managers about how to communicate about and reinforce the importance of the code to staff?
- Instruct employees about their important responsibilities for the code (and for reviewing it)?
- Link the relevance of the code to employees' daily work?
- Reinforce to employee the importance of the code as a problem resolution aid?
- Include communications that reinforce key code messaging?

34

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Code Reinforcement

Does your code program:

- Keep employees informed on timely topics that arise in the business throughout the year?
- Remind leaders and managers to keep the code and its standards and resources top of mind for employees?
- Reinforce the code's value as a problem resolution "toolkit"?
- Regularly link the value of the code with the organization's operations and success?
- Help employees balance other incentives or pressures to meet certain business goals?

Project Considerations

1. Revision – Degree of anticipated revision (e.g., minor, significant)?
2. Team – Use of a staff team for a) project oversight, b) content review.
3. Code assessment – Level of effort desired to meet revision degree? Level of leadership and staff engagement? (e.g., interviews, focus groups, survey) Documents to support assessment?
4. Formats – Publications? Printed? Acrobat? Electronic? Interactive? Website?
5. Audience – Employees, Board, SFOs, third parties?
6. Standards – Interest in revising expectations that are being set?
7. Policies – Need policy review and/or coordination?
8. Risk assessment – Any to align with?
9. Benchmarking – Against peers? Other organizations? Degree of effort (topic, subtopic, standard)?
10. Detail – Anticipated length of revised code?
11. Review – Staffing? Review levels/cycles?
12. Design – In-house team? Level of investment?
13. Code launch – Expected need and effort?
