Leader & Manager Led Discussions - Why

“helping with the discipline of informal team discussions”

Design approach

• Drawing from tested deliveries and existing client stories
• Ten to twenty minutes of preparation
• Five to thirty minutes team discussion
• Each has a standalone value, but also a cumulative impact
• Offering a variety of topics and styles

SAY THE COLOUR NOT THE WORD
Business impact

Please consider the following:

1. Where are we vulnerable to going too fast and not stopping to give ourselves time to think clearly?

2. Does our local working culture allow us to take the time to slow down when appropriate? If not how are we going to change this?

3. How are we at managing mixed or differing opinions? Do we slow down and engage our analytical thinking or do we stop thinking and jump to a conclusion/argument?

Our experiences
Leader Led Discussions - Benefits

Advantages for managers:
• Supporting own knowledge and leadership development
• Easy to fit into working schedule
• High impact, pertinent discussions to bring to team meetings
• Compliance and ethics in the normal course of business
• Team development/relationship building

Advantages for Ethics & Compliance:
• Distributing delivery responsibility
• Increasing retention and sense of responsibility within operating teams
• Minimising business disruption
• Building high numbers of manager advocates
• E&C enabling managers to be the “carriers of culture”

Leader Led Discussions - Challenges

• First exposure and access
• Tracking and feedback, without stifling authentic discussions
• Cultural mix within examples
• Increasing delivery support (podcasts, videos)
• Labeling and increasing cross functional input
• Deliberately a slow burn
